SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS

Talking About God

Everybody has an idea of God—even those who claim they don't believe. But we seldom talk about our ideas and our expressions of God. We can change that! In order to think and talk about God, we have developed mental images and concepts, many of them anthropomorphic. We like to think of God as all loving, all powerful, and all knowing, but struggle when confronted with what seems to be the arbitrariness of natural disasters, deadly diseases, and human acts of evil. Is God in charge of the universe? Why did God lead the Hebrews out of Egypt, but not prevent slavery in the so-called New World or the Holocaust? What conception(s) of God do you hold? What mental images or concepts guide you in your thinking about the Sacred? How does our conception of God influence the way in which we interact with other human beings? What is your experience of God? Who are you to God? Where is God in your life? What is God doing in the world? Whose side is God on? How can people of faith live together? Please join Rev. Dwayne Craig and the Journey Sunday School class in Fellowship Hall at 8:45am for this seven week class from Sunday, September 13 - Sunday, November 1 . This class will explore such questions and the responses given to such questions by contemporary Christian and Jewish people of faith - from professional theologians to pastors, to a rabbi, a teacher of disabled children and others. This class will launch Pastor Craig's Sunday school class—"Open Hearts."
